A Day to Remember:

November 1918... On the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month, the guns on the western front went silent. The armistice began and “The Great War” or “The War to End all Wars” was over. After four long years of death and destruction there were 37 million casualties of war. In addition, the war resulted in over 17 million dead, of which 61,000 were Canadians.

The Great War was only a starting point for the turmoil of war throughout the 20th Century. World War II, The Korean Conflict, Vietnam, the Killing Fields of Cambodia, the Gulf War and the Yugoslavian Civil Wars are only a few of the conflicts. The 21st Century began with conflicts in Afghanistan, Chechnya and Iraq. The death toll from wars, civil wars and conflicts around the world since the year 1900 until now is estimated at over 127 million people.

2020 is a significant year as it marks the 75th anniversary of the Canadian liberation of the Netherlands during World War II. No battle was more crucial than the Battle of the Scheldt, a five-week campaign in which Canadian Forces worked to liberate The Netherlands. However, one of Canada’s greatest victories came with a cost; over 6,300 Canadian soldiers were killed or wounded in the battle. As a sign of gratitude and friendship the Dutch government provided Canada with 100,000 tulips at the end of the war. For the 75th anniversary the Dutch government has again sent 100,000 tulips to Canada. Schools across the country have been given tulips. The tulips will be planted in November and blossom in the Spring to commemorate the liberation of the Netherlands and the end of World War II in Europe.

Remembrance Day Assembly:

Today we gave thanks to our veterans at our Remembrance Day Assembly. The proceedings were led by Neha Kumar and Devan-Marie Krys-Pratt. Thank you to Kenzie Greenhow for beginning the assembly with acknowledging the Aboriginal territories of the Kwantlen, Katzie, Matsqui and Semiahmoo First Nations. Thank you Ms. Ross for sharing the story of the 75th anniversary and thank you Ms. Caines for speaking about Aboriginal veterans. Thank you to our dignitaries and guests, as well as the Aldergrove Legion and the CADETS for their support today. Thank you to Mr. McLaughlin and his Drama students for their touching performance today. Thank you also goes out to Ms. Mills and the band and choir students for their performances. Lastly, a very special thank you goes out to Mr. Glauser for planning and organizing today’s assembly.

Aboriginal Veterans Day:

November 8th is National Aboriginal Veterans Day. This is a day of remembrance and commemoration of the contributions of Indigenous veterans in the First and Second World Wars, as well as the Korean War. National Aboriginal Veterans Day began in Winnipeg in 1994 when Indigenous veterans were not recognized in Remembrance Day activities and is now celebrated in many communities across Canada. Over 12,000 Indigenous people are estimated to have volunteered in all three wars, including 7,000 First Nations members, and approximately 300 died during these conflicts.

Remembrance Day Assembly

The 75th Liberation Tulips

In June of 1944, 14,000 Canadian soldiers landed on Juno beach in France among 150,000 other allied soldiers and began fighting their way through and liberating Nazi-held territory. These battles on mainland Europe would last for a full year before Germany would surrender. Back on the beaches, the Battle of Normandy came at a great cost, with over 18,000 Canadian casualties, including more than 5,000 Canadians who lost their lives. Amongst the losses, the Allies battled forward and made progress through France, then Britain and American fighters headed for Germany, while Canada was tasked with moving along the coast, and towards the Netherlands. The Dutch had suffered greatly under Nazi occupation since 1940. Hopes of a quick and easy victory were dashed when German soldiers dug in and proved they would defend their holdings and their access to the sea. Canadians faced a hard winter trying to break the stalemate. Some of us have had the privilege of hearing Bud Friesen recount his firsthand experience in these battles—7,600 Canadians sacrificed their lives in the battles to finally liberate Netherlands from the Nazis on May 5, 1945. As a result, Germany would offer their unconditional surrender across Europe only two days later. The European theatre of WWII was over. The Netherlands have always been incredibly grateful for Canada's role in their liberation. In 1945, the Dutch royal family gifted Ottawa with 100,000 tulips, a symbol of their country and their gratitude. The Royal family has continued to gift Canada with bulbs every year to mark their remembrance and friendship. This year, May 2020, will mark the 75th anniversary of Liberation Day— and there was a desire to mark the occasion. The Dutch Kingdom decided to repeat their 1945 post-war gift and send 100,000 Liberation75 tulips. This tulip was chosen because it should be in full bloom in May for the anniversary. It is hearty, crown shaped, and the colour is reminiscent of both the orange of the Dutch and the red of Canadians. 75 years is a big deal, that's a long friendship. An additional 100,000 bulbs were purchased by the National Capital Commission to be sent across the country to communities, parks and schools. ACSS was chosen to participate, to create a small garden here and plant 100 bulbs in recognition of the liberation of the Netherlands and the role Canada played, and the enduring friendship between the countries. The goal is to plant over 1.1million beautiful tulips across Canada to represent the 1.1 million Canadian soldiers who served during WWII. In the spring, when you see these tulips begin to bloom around our school, remember to take a moment, as you are today, to be grateful.

If you would like to be a part of the initiative to plant 1.1 million bulbs across Canada, and raise funds for the Royal Canadian Legion, included is a link where you can order your Liberation75 Tulip bulbs, which come straight from Holland:

The ACSS Senior Boys Soccer team wrapped up another successful season this past Tuesday, finishing 2nd in the East Fraser Valley Playoffs and falling just short of a provincial berth by losing to last year's provincial champions, Langley Fundamental School. Our team's success this year would not have been possible if it were not for the support of the following: 1. ACSS PE Department 2. Team Managers: Tanisha Aggarwal, Mai Truong, and Jaemin Cha 3. Team Captains: Mantej and Hartej Sidhu. As coaches, we are so proud of all our players this year who demonstrated great teamwork, dedication, and excellent sportsmanship. Gr. 12 students wanting help applying to college or university are encouraged to seek out Mrs. Luteijn or Mrs. Smith in the Counselling office and make an appointment. Students can also get help during FLEX in the library computer lab when Mrs. Luteijn is supervising. The following information is available as a hand-out in the Counselling office as well.

How to Apply to College or University in BC

1. Go to <http://educationplannerbc.ca>

This is a great site for planning and searching for after high school options for further schooling. The SEARCH option is great for getting information on which schools offer the programs you may be interested in. From here you can also get more specific information about entrance requirements to those programs and will link you to the school's website for even more information.

2. When you are ready to apply, click on the APPLY ONLINE box on the main screen.

Follow the instructions for signing up for an EducationPlannerBC Account. You will need your 9-digit PEN. This is the number that identifies you as a BC student and is on your report card. Mrs. Luteijn or any of your teachers can access this number from MyEdBC.

3. After you fill in your PROFILE, select an institution (notice that UBC, BCIT, UVIC and Royal Roads Universities have external applications and do not use EducationPlannerBC, however, there are links to those schools to apply at their sites). There are also links to some private institutions from this page.
4. Fill in any additional information the school is asking, like what program you are applying to. In order to complete your application you will need a credit card. If your parents do not have one (or don't trust you with it!) you can purchase a VISA or MASTERCARD gift card from a grocery or drugstore and that will do, just make sure you have enough $$ on the card.
5. After you apply you should receive an email confirmation within the next couple of days. Be sure to check your emails frequently and read your emails through line by line so you do not miss any important dates or instructions for your next steps. Some people create a special email just for applying, so the emails back from the institution do not get lost among all your other emails and SPAM.
6. Your next step is to arrange to have your marks (transcripts) accessible for the school(s) you applied to. You need to get yourself a BCeID ... read on

How to order transcripts or share your transcripts with the college/university you applied to

1. Google search: "Student Transcript Service" – then click on "Order Transcripts & Certificates – Province of British Columbia" or <https://www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/education-training/k-12/support/transcripts-and-certificates>
2. Click on "Current student" – Then click on "ORDER." As you read the page you will learn you need to register for a Basic BCeID to access your transcripts. This BCeID will also let you access other BC Government services in the future, so be sure to remember the registration details you provide when setting this up. There is also a Help Video you can watch before proceeding, which is very helpful. You will need your 9-digit PEN (Personal Education Number), a valid email address, your date of birth, and your legal first and last name – since your name must match your school of record has on file.
3. You will receive an email confirmation of your successful BCeID registration, so be sure to confirm this within 24 hours or you must register again. As always, make sure you are keeping your email and log in information safe somewhere so you do not forget how to get in.
4. Now you can log in to the STS (Student Transcript Service).
5. Once in, click on "Send/Order Transcripts" – Don't worry, it does not cost you anything to do this. Only when you have graduated, ordering transcripts will cost you $10. Now select the school(s) you applied to so they can access your transcript information. On the left list of schools, scroll and then click on the school you want and click on the button to add to the list on the right. Keep the default button selection that indicates the school can have access to your marks/transcripts when grade become available over the course of the year. A copy of your Transcript should come up. Be sure to give it a good look over to make sure it is correct. If there are any errors or omissions, please see the Counsellors to confirm. If all is good, proceed to check out and complete your order. You will be given a summary of the schools you are setting up with.
6. BAM ... you are set!
7. Be aware that some school and programs will want you to SELF-REPORT your grades or even send a copy of your unofficial transcripts directly to them. Always check your emails from the admissions office and follow through well before any deadlines. If you need help, come see Mrs. Luteijn.

Dear Parents and Guardians:

Re: Requirements Under BC's New Vaccination Status Reporting Regulation

BC's new Vaccination Status Reporting Regulation came into effect on July 1, 2019. It supports the gathering of immunization records by Public Health. The regulation applies to all students in all schools within the Province's jurisdiction, including those who are home-schooled. It does not apply to children attending schools in First Nations communities.

In the coming months our staff will check the immunization records we have on file for children in Kindergarten. They will identify children whose records are missing or incomplete. Families of these children may be contacted.

Parents/guardians of children in Grades 1 to 12 will need to check their child's records and are asked to provide us with any missing immunization information required under the regulation.

What do parents/ guardians need to do?

You can use the online Vaccination Status Indicator tool at <https://immunizebc.ca/vaccination-status-indicator> to check if your child's immunization record is missing or incomplete. The Indicator tells you if your child's immunization record is on file with public health but does not provide any details about their immunization status or history. Health authority public health units already have complete immunization information on file for most children.

If the Vaccine Status Indicator shows that your child's immunization records are up-to-date, then you do not need to take further action.

If the Vaccine Status Indicator shows that your child's immunization records are pending, no action is required at this time. These records are in the process of being inputted into the system and may take some time to be entered.

If the Vaccine Status Indicator shows that your child's immunization records are incomplete, this means either public health does not have your child's records or your child needs additional immunizations. If your child has been immunized by a health care provider outside of public health, you need to contact those providers and ask for a copy of your child's immunization record. Please provide these records to your local public health unit.

You can submit records in-person at a public health unit. You can also send a photo or type the record into an e-mail and submit it to reportimmunizations@fraserhealth.ca. Be sure the record you are submitting has your child's full name, date of birth, sex, and personal health number (PHN) if the PHN is available. Records can also be provided to a Community Health Nurse in a First Nations Community.

If your child needs additional immunizations, please call your family doctor, a pharmacist, or public health to book an appointment.

Visit www.fraserhealth.ca/getimmunized for a list of community vaccine providers.

To book an appointment with public health call:

- 604-702-4906 (residents of Mission, Abbotsford, Chilliwack, Agassiz and Hope)
- 604-476-7087 (residents in all other areas of Fraser Health)

Collecting immunization information allows us to connect with families about the importance of disease prevention. It also helps public health to control outbreaks by quickly identifying children who are not fully immunized and helps everyone get back to learning as soon as possible.

For more information, please visit <https://immunizebc.ca/vaccination-status-reporting-regulation>

Thank you for helping to keep our children and communities healthy.

Sincerely,

Emily Newhouse
